Subject: Recommendation letter – Mis. Kananke Vithanage Sanduni Imasha.

As the Head of the Department of International Studies at the University of Kelaniya, It is a pleasure to produce a recommendation letter to Ms. Kananke Vithanage Sanduni Imasha, an undergraduate student of the International Studies Department at the University of Kelaniya. I had known her for four years, since 2017 when she enrolled in university. I was thoroughly impressed by her commitment to the academic field during that time. I witnessed her develop into an outstanding individual who excels in academic and personal pursuits.

I have known her since her first year at the university, as she enrolled in the regional studies course module (World Politics since Second World War – INTS 12223) course unit continued by myself in the second semester. Then I taught her International Politics (INTS- 21434) in her second year and Politics of South Asia (INTS 31434) in her third year. During her final year, I was her last year's dissertation supervisor. She completed her dissertation (The significance of Indian Ocean Region on economic development in 21st century: Special reference to China – INTS 43538) with an outstanding result. Her work under my supervision was very creative and punctual. Ms. Imasha was a very hard-working and reliable person. She has not missed any class for her course to date and has shown great dedication and desire to achieve her academic goals. She has actively engaged in both academic and extra-curricular activities in the department. Ms. Imasha worked with a publication done by the department of International Studies.

I highly recommend you accept Ms. Sanduni Imasha for the post-graduate program at your reputed university. Don't hesitate to contact me if you have questions about her character or past academic work.

Your Sincerely,

Dr. Chaminda Abeysinghe, Ph.D
